

4 LOOP TRAIL CASERA NAULENI - COLMAJER FOREST
 Difficulty: T
 Recommended period: from early June to late October
 Marking: CAI' trails number 238
 Altitude gain: Approximately 220 m
 Hiking Time: Up to 1:40 hours
ITINERARY

On the back of Rifugio Tita Piaz [Alt. 1417 m. above mean sea level (msl)] take the dirt road toward the woods. Following the road you will shortly cross CAI's trail 238.

Follow this trail to ascent to the clearing of Casera Nauleni (Alt. 1641 m. msl).

From Casera Nauleni continue along a wooded area pathway that descends to the North, through Colmajer's forest, until you join a larger dirt road. Following this road to the left and you will return to Rifugio Tita Piaz. On the way down from Casera Nauleni you will cross on the right side of the pathway a trail marked 238 which leads to Casera Colmajer.

5 THE LOOP OF THE PEAKS (LOOP TRAIL OF MOUNTAIN COLMAJER)
 Difficulty: E
 Recommended period: from early June to late October
 Marking: The trail is marked with red and white strip
 Altitude gain: Approximately 450 m
 Hiking Time: Up to 3:00 - 5:00 hours
ITINERARY

From Rifugio Tita Piaz [Alt. 1417 m. above mean sea level (msl)] follow hike number 4 to the clearing of Casera Nauleni. From here follow the trail sign directions and climb to the valley that leads to Forchia Nauleni (Alt. 1703 m. msl). Then continue to the North, following the ridge through a thick area of dwarf mountain pines until to the summit of Mountain Colmajer (Alt. 1858 m. msl). Continuing on the northern slope you will reach Forchia Grande (Alt. 1739 m. msl) where the descent begins. On the way down, at the altitude of approximately 1650 m. msl, the trail will split in two directions. The trail that departs to the right is a short path to Casera Colmajer (Alt. 1670 m. msl), while the trail to the left will join with the dirt road to Casera Nauleni. Follow the road as described on hike number 4 and you will return to Rifugio Tita Piaz.

From Forchia Grande it is also possible to take a deviation towards Mountain Sesilis (Alt. 1812 m. msl). After reaching Forchia Grande continue along the marked path following the ridge and passing through Forchia Piccola (Alt. 1752 m. msl) before reaching the panoramic summit of Mountain Sesilis. From the top descend to the North-North-West ridge, following a marked trail that will take you through a wooden area before it joins with a dirt road that will bring you back to Rifugio Tita Piaz.

From Rifugio Tita Piaz [Alt. 1417 m. (msl)] take the forest track to the right of the paved road descending towards Sauris. The forest track enters the woods and descends along the same side of the paved road. Following the path you will encounter nine stations that will illustrate the different aspects that characterize the local ecosystem. The nature trail develops along a loop of about 3.5 km. which will require an average of 1:30 to complete.

6 FLOBIA'S EDUCATIONAL TRAIL
 Difficulty: T
 Recommended period: from early June to late October
 Marking: clear path with wooden handrail
 Altitude gain: Approximately 130 m
 Hiking Time: Up to 1:30 hours
ITINERARY

7 LOOP TRAIL LAUCJT - PLAN DAI CJAVAI
 Difficulty: T
 Recommended Period: from April to end of October
 Marking: Paved road and direction signs
 Altitude gain: minimal
 Hiking Time: Up to 1:00 hours
ITINERARY

The itinerary winds near the town of Ampezzo and is suitable for everyone who likes an easy and relaxing walk. It starts from Ampezzo's main square, from where it descends along Via Brazzoletta until it reaches a site called Navais. Here you can proceed along the main paved road or take the small road on the right leading to a large pool, formed by the river Teria, known by the locals as "Pociòn" (big ditch). From the "Pociòn" follow the trail that turns to the left and while climbing along the side of the mountain enters the forest of "Plan dai Cjavai". This trail joins the main paved road that you left in Navais. This road will take you to the municipal sports facilities and back to town.

8 POCIÒN - MILIA CJASTELAT
 Difficulty: T
 Recommended Period: from April to end of October
 Marking: Direction signs
 Altitude gain: minimal
 Hiking Time: Up to 1:00 hours
ITINERARY

This itinerary starts from the location known as "Pociòn". Follow the signs to "Mulin di Chiç". The path will cross the river Teria and immediately after will go through the ruins of a old mill known as "Mulin di Chiç". Then the trail will enter a forest of firs and beeches while keeping on the left the river Teria. The path is very easy to follow and the gain in elevation is minimal. During the summer time you will admire cyclamen which grow in abundance along the itinerary. After walking for about 30 minutes you will reach a small valley where you can see a building that gives its name to this location known as "La Milia". Continuing along the trail crosses a small wooden bridge and reaches an open grass area known as "Cjastelat". Proceeding to the right you get to the road that leads back to Ampezzo, while taking a short detour to the left you will reach a group of bunkers built in the cliff above the river Teria.

LEGEND

- T Easy Hike (short routes that run on very obvious and well marked dirt roads or paths which required only a modest physical effort to complete).
- E Moderate Hike (trails on paths or along well marked footpaths. They required a good level of fitness, a good knowledge of the Alpine environment, a sense of direction, and appropriate footwear and clothing).
- EE Difficult Hike for experienced hikers and climbers (routes along rock formations or via ferratas with exposure sections. They require a good knowledge of the Alpine environment and hiking/climbing skills).

1 TIZIANA WEISS NATURALISTIC TRAIL
Difficulty: E
Recommended period: from mid June to end of October
Marking: CAI' trails number 215 and 233. The trails are marked with a blue T inside a white colored circle
Altitude gain: Approximately 600 m
Hiking Time: Up to 4:00 hours
ITINERARY

From Rifugio Tila Piaz [Alt. 1417 m. above mean sea level (msl)] follow for about 500 m. the paved road towards Sauris to the plateau area and take the dirt road on your left. The Tiziana Weiss Naturalistic Trail (CAI's trail 215) starts from here. Follow the dirt road (CAI's trail 215 or 233) to Casera Tintina (Alt. 1495 m. msl). Once you have reached Casera Tintina continue to follow the path that leads to the southern edge of the meadow reaching a trail junction in proximity to a water spring.

Here take the trail on the left (CAI's trail number 233). After a fairly steep stretch, the path crosses a small rise in the ground which identifies the southernmost point of the last ice glacier before it began to retreat about 6000-8000 years ago. Then the path resumes climbing through a dense area of dwarf mountain pines (Pinus Mugo). After leaving the dwarf mountain pines the trail continues to climb making tight turns until it reaches the base of a rocky wall. Here it turns to the right and ascend a slope made of rocks and grass.

From the end of the slope a short exposed ledge, equipped with wire rope, allows to reach the Malpasso di Tintina (Alt. 1960 m. msl) where the normal route to Mountain Tinisa begins. From here continue to follow the ridge until Punta dell'Uccel (Alt. 1983 m. msl), where a plaque identifies the mountains' peaks surrounding you. From the top descend along the crest until Forca di Montöf (Alt. 1820 m. msl). To the North of the ridge stands a distinctive boulder known as Uccel di Timsa. After reaching Forca di Montöf you can choose to take a short detour from the main trail. Follow the CAI's trail numbered 215 descending to the South until you reach the shelter Casera Montöf (Alt. 1742 m. msl). From here you can overlook a beautiful view of the valley known as Val Tagliamento.

If you decide not to take the diversion to Casera Montöf, stay on the CAI's trail 233 descending towards the North, on the left side of the valley of the Rio Tintina. Passing through an abandoned pasture and among a batch of alders you will reach the ridge of Monte Cavallo di Cervia. Walk along the broad ridge, then, between a thin and light woods with tall larch and fir trees, which give the place the look of a beautiful garden. Reached a saddle, the trail descends to the right of the ridge, with several bends until you reach the rocky riverbed of the Rio Tintina. Across the river, you will join the CAI's trail 215, which will take you to Casera Tintina.

Following the same trail along the forest road, you will return to the paved road of Passo Pura. (Detour: from Forca di Montöf it is possible to descend more rapidly to Casera Tintina by following the CAI's trail 215, which is held on the right side of the valley of the Rio Tintina).

2 HIKE TO MOUNTAIN TINISA - THE SKY RIDGE
Difficulty: EE
Recommended period: from mid June to end of October
Marking: CAI's Trail Number 215 and 233
Altitude gain: Approximately 500 m
Hiking Time: Up to 3:00 hours
ITINERARY

From Rifugio Tila Piaz [Alt. 1417 m. above mean sea level (msl)] follow for about 500 m. the paved road towards Sauris to the plateau area and take the dirt road on your left. The Tiziana Weiss Naturalistic Trail (CAI's trail 215) starts from here. Follow the dirt road (CAI's trail 215 or 233) to Casera Tintina (Alt. 1495 m. msl). Shortly before the dairy, take the path on the left (Passo - the Cresta in Cielo) which you follow until you cross the old path coming from the Rio della Calcina. Then continues on this path, which initially crosses a stretch of gravel, and then climbs along a short via ferrata. The trail continues its ascent towards a saddle and then it reaches the East peak of Mountain Tinisa. From the East peak you can follow the delightful ridge reaching the main summit of the mountain. Along the ridge you will find few exposed sections some of which are equipped with metallic ropes. From the summit continue to follow the trail which descends among rocks and ends by joining the Tiziana Weiss Naturalistic Trail (CAI's trail 233). You can follow this for the return towards Punta dell'Uccel e valico Le Forcelle. Alternatively from the main summit you can return to Casera Tintina via the North face following the trail back.

3 HIKE TO BRUTTO PASSO - CASERA BERNON
Difficulty: E
Recommended period: from mid June to end of October
Marking: CAI' trails number 215, 214 and 233
Altitude gain: Approximately 530 m
Hiking Time: Up to 3:00 hours
ITINERARY

From Rifugio Tila Piaz [Alt. 1417 m. above mean sea level (msl)] follow for about 500 m. the paved road towards Sauris to the plateau area and take the dirt road on your left. Follow the road (CAI's trail 215 or 233) to Casera Tintina (Alt. 1495 m. msl). From Casera Tintina follow the CAI's trail 215 that climbs steeply to the left of the valley of Rio Tintina to Forca di Montöf (Alt. 1822 m. msl) (Otherwise you can also walk CAI's trail 233 along the ridge that bounds the valley to the right of Rio Tintina and that leads to M. Cavallo Cervia [Alt. 1983 m. msl]). From Forca di Montöf follow the CAI's trail 214 which after crossing through some open fields steeply climbs to Brutto Passo. The path cuts the South-West side and descends to the next saddle (Alt. 1945 m. msl) where it crosses the border between the counties of Ampezzo and Forni di Sotto. From the saddle, leave the CAI's trail 214 and follow a not marked trail descending on the North side of the ridge, which leads to the visible Casera Bernon (Alt. 1620 m. msl).
